

Land Acknowledgement Statement

APALA's Board of Directors will be creating and reading a Land Acknowledgement Statement at the beginning of every Board and General meeting. The Statement will acknowledge that, as residents of Atlantic Canada, we are standing and living on land that was taken from first nations. The statement will be included below once it is finalized.